

Kentucky Democrats, You Are Entitled to Express Your Preference

If you have a choice for the Democratic nomination for President, you are entitled to express it, Kentucky Democrats.

But you have but one chance to do so.

You have been called to meet in mass conventions in your county seats at 2 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, May 1, for the purpose of registering your choice.

Neglect the opportunity thus offered, send your county delegates without instructions, and your one chance to exercise your sovereign right of saying who will be your standard-bearer in November has slipped away.

Exercise Your Prerogative

Will you delegate your franchise to a few men in the crisis which confronts your party and your country or will you assert your prerogative as a citizen and a Democrat to choose your leader?

That you may be able to register your choice intelligently these facts about the candidate Ohio Democracy has put forward, as a man whom the Genius of America has trained for just this hour, are presented.

A Typically American Career

BORN on a farm "of poor but honest parents," James M. Cox became a teacher, then newspaper reporter, then an editor, then secretary to a Congressman, then owner of a prosperous newspaper property, then a member of Congress, and then Governor of Ohio—the only Democrat ever elected to that office three times.

Always On the Square

ASK any union labor leader about Governor Cox and he will tell you that no man or group control him, that he is always on the square.

Ask the business men of Ohio and they will tell you that he understands business problems and that he has courage and ability for any emergency.

Ohio's Votes Are Needed

OHIO's electoral votes are needed this year; Cox can swing them for Democracy.

Go to the mass convention in your county seat at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, May 1, and select as your delegates representative forward-looking Democrats, who hold good government and the interest of the party paramount to all else, and instruct them to support the candidacy of Governor James M. Cox.

Women are entitled to representation and to express their preference and are urged to attend the convention.

Let the country know where Kentucky Democracy stands.

PERILOUS TIMES

The aftermath of war is always fraught with peril, one result of the late war, as in all war, is the denuding of moral sensibility. Standards are lowered, wrong is not so wrong. Values in property are lowered, values in time are lowered, values in human life are lowered. Banks are entered in broad open day light and looted, men, women and even children are outraged and murdered. The air is pregnant with outlawry. Greed and avarice run rampant over all standards.

It is said that three thousand millionaires were made during the short time of the late war. Many thousands of men, producers, were taken to war many of whom have not returned as producers. Other employment sought. There is a shortage of the necessities of life. When the whole world was at war with such a vast waste of all commodities and such a small amount produced you need not be surprised at the high prices. If you will stop to think of the many thousands of women and children homeless and breadless the moral social and political disorders call on us in the perilous times to sit steady in the boat. The demand is not watchful waiting but watchful production. Unless the American people sober down and get more quiet and thoughtful we will land on the reefs. The greed for gold, the greed for pleasure and other devils inflated appetites will wreck us.

Beware! What a need to day for real brotherhood!

ELRIC J. BELL

In recognition of the work of the Salvation Army among the boys in the front line trenches of France and Belgium, the American Legion of Kentucky has given unqualified endorsements to the second Salvation Army Home Service appeal, May 10 to May 20th.

The boys of the American Legion have not forgotten the hardships shared with them by the girls who cooked doughnuts and pies while the scream of shells and schrapnel made the night an inferno. They have not forgotten the women who braved the machine gun fire of the Germans to carry hot coffee to the fighters during the zero nights. Many of those girls who shouldered the big heavy water jugs with ten gallon carriers of hot coffee swung from each end, are still in France, their graves marked by the Cross of Honor and among the poppy fields of Flanders.

Commander Elric J. Bell, of the American Legion has sent the following letter to J. Paul Swain, State Director of the Salvation Army appeal:

HAPPY WOMEN

PLENTY OF THEM IN MARION, AND GOOD REASON FOR IT.

Mrs. Sue E. Glenn, W. Bellville St. Marion, says: "Some time ago I was suffering with kidney complaint. My kidneys acted irregularly. My back was weak and lame and ached dreadfully. I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store, and they cured the complaint. I certainly think they are a good medicine and I am always glad to recommend them and advise their use to others."

THE COLYUM

Didn't get stuck in the mud Sunday.

Stayed at home and went to Sunday School.

First thing I heard upon arrival there was Noble Boston talking about a certain bridge-it was—

But we are going to have a regular bridge there before another winter.

Going to exonerate ex-Chief of Police Tom Wring.

He thinks that I was taking a crack at him when I spoke of a dinky little thing called a bridge on North Main Street a week or so ago.

Far be it from such.

He is no more responsible for being dinky than Abe Kabbile for the defeat of the Germans.

All he could do was to build what he was ordered to build.

Like the good chief he was.

Is that all right Tom?

And he didn't know that this was going to be written and printed.

But I am not going to take back a thing I said about the bridge.

Some have accused me of doing too much kicking about things for a stranger.

I have spent less than two years of my life in Crittenden county.

But my mother was born in this county.

So was my father.

And I have heard of Crittenden in many a fireside story ever since I can remember.

Back in 1893 the first Hogard settled in Crittenden county.

Only a few Sundays ago I ate dinner in the very room in which my father was born.

Who can claim more than 117 years back for their family in this county?

I have even heard many a time how loyal Joel Pickens was to the democratic party.

And I thank you. W. P. HOGARD.

COL. NAT CURD LAUDS TRUTONA

Former Jailer of Warren County Finds Friend in Perfect Tonic.

Bowling Green Ky. —Col. Nat H. Curd, former jailer of Warren County and now a successful farmer and livestock auctioneer, has joined the ranks of the many here who are praising Trutona for the good it has done them. Col. Curd who is widely known and extremely popular recently made the following interesting statement:

"I suffered from a general breakdown following an attack of the flu. I thought I was going down in health and would never be myself again. I was cross and mean. I was nervous and could not sleep. My appetite was poor and I lost weight and strength."

"Since taking Trutona two weeks I have gained fifteen pounds. I feel better in every way than I have for years. I am a well man. I have a ravenous appetite, the constipation has been relieved and I sleep soundly through the night and feel refreshed and buoyant on arising. My former strength has returned. Trutona is the only medicine that relieved me. I believe it should be in every home."

Col. Curd is known to hundreds of residents throughout Kentucky as a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity and his statement praising Trutona will no doubt result in many people becoming convinced of the perfect tonic's unusual merits as a combatant of stomach, bowel and liver troubles, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Marion at J. H. Orme's Drug Store—advertisement.

Tested Eighteen Months to Prove Perfection

TWO years ago a puncture-proof cord tire was unheard of.

Many experts believed the final development in pneumatic tire-making had been reached with the production of a Fabric puncture-proof—the only one, the LEE.

Motorists naturally looked to LEE for a puncture-proof cord.

LEE has succeeded in building such a tire. It has all the economy and resiliency of the best cord tires. It practically eliminates blowouts, tread separation, broken sidewalls and other common tire troubles. And it is positively puncture-proof!

For 18 months this tire was cruelly tested before being offered to the public. It rode as lightly and as smoothly as a cord without the puncture-proof feature. It was as economical on fuel and oil. It was easier on tubes. And—it outlasted cord tires that were not puncture-proof!

Let us demonstrate the economy of the new LEE CORD PUNCTURE-PROOF.
